Fire

Cooking Over an Open Flame – it might sound like good old BBQ with a hint of campfire romance, but think again! This is more Archaic Reloaded: the revival of an ancient cooking method, now with wood instead of gas. This fire movement is the hottest trend being embraced by top-tier restaurants worldwide, from Alois in Munich to Fogo in Lisbon and Burnt Ends in Singapore. Whether on the grill, in a charcoal oven, or in a cast-iron pot nestled in the embers, fish, meat, seafood, vegetables, and even delicate tarts are sizzling and simmering to perfection. As retro-chic as vinyl records or classic analog photography.

STONE AGE. The amorphous stoneware bowls SHELLS are archaic vessels designed for delicately seared seafood. The items, featuring a spectacular metallic-bronze effect glaze on the top, echo the trend for maritime aesthetics.

DIVIDING LINES. With its characteristic ribbing, the stoneware plate from COAST & COUNTRY evokes preparation of meat and fish. The integrated ridge prevents sauce or jus from spreading across the plate.

SOME LIKE IT HOT. RENEW serves grilled dishes sustainably. These items are made from 90 % recycled ceramic material. The archaic cooking method receives a contemporary touch through the RENEW design.

Tête-à-

In many restaurants today, large rustic tables provide a casual atmosphere for dining in larger groups, often with a lively noise level. The new countertrend to this sharing concept is Dinner Dating: small two-person tables paired with a carefully curated menu make it easier for two people to get to know each other in undisturbed intimacy. On a first date, sitting at an angle avoids constant eye contact. Depending on time and budget, couples enjoy a complex menu or casual dining. The chef serves emotionally arranged delicacies.

DELICATE STARTERS.

The slim stoneware plates BREAD & BITE are ideal for light amuse-bouches like seared sashimi – shown here with pea sorbet and colorful couscous. The recessed area is designed to hold jus or oil, perfect for celebrating with bread as part of the course. The black plate features the same glaze as the popular NARA BLACK stoneware collection, allowing for seamless pairing.

CHARACTER PIECES. The soft, round stoneware bowls SAVANNA are perfect for a grand opening or closing of a menu, such as filo pastry tartlets served on a bed of cocoa beans. Each piece is unique, as the reactive glazes create a wide range of colors from light beige to gray. The graceful design of the SILENTO stoneware bowl impresses with its steep, conical shape.

EYE CATCHER. Amazake rice with azuki beans and miso caramel sauce form an elegant “case” of recycled stoneware. The light or dark glazed interior of EMBRACE emphasizes the value of what’s being showcased. The elegant pourers are the perfect choice for a trendy tableside pouring ceremony.

- Stuff

Stuffed vegetables like cabbage rolls and filled peppers are staples of classic comfort food. The current stuffing trend creatively reinvents these traditional methods of filling vegetables, meat, fish, and dough, focusing on health and visual appeal. For example, stuffed mushrooms are perfect for the Shroom Boom. Crossover experiments fuse bold flavors into new taste explosions, offering affordable ways to “pimp” and vary dishes. The emphasis lies on the craftsmanship of cooking: filling, embedding, and preserving. Guests delight in the surprise hidden within the “wrapping,” which they reveal and unfold.

SHARING IS WOW. Shared dishes create a relaxed, communicative atmosphere, whether in casual fine dining or upscale gastronomy. NAMI DUNE highlights stuffed delicacies with phenomenal glaze effects, oscillating between matte and glossy finishes. The oval and round plates, bowls, and dip dishes are also ideal for snacks in lounges and bars.

THE NEW EASY. Even simple snacks can be presented effectively such as the NATURAL STONE bowls with vivid coloured bites. Vegetarian stuffings shine on an ELEMENTS plate in SAND.

NEXT LEVEL. The Scandinavian-inspired LOFT presenters elevate culinary presentations to new heights. They showcase exciting combinations of materials.

NO BOREDOM. The stuffing trend also incorporates items like samosas, presented creatively on an oak rolling pin with a flattened base for stability.

ENSEMBLE. The oval BREAD & BITE plate showcases green oil on matte black. FLOW & SERVE, CESTO marble, and Wooden container combine rustic naturalness with timeless elegance in a modern arrangement.

If you want to create real buzz in restaurant marketing, social media is an absolute must. Viewers – especially Millennials and Gen Z – make exciting restaurant dishes go viral and celebrate the creativity of chefs. It's no longer a one-way street; now, chefs are drawing inspiration from user trends in return. These so-called "Menu Hacks" allow them to integrate TikTok and Instagram-hyped dishes into their repertoire and elevate them professionally. Interestingly, social media favorites often look completely different from official food trends, which tend to prioritize sustainability, simplicity, and vegan cuisine.

ULTIMATE TREASURE. Unconventional serving formats elevate the dining experience. A tall glass AMUSE TOWER holds different layers that can all be bought together in the ultimate dish.

TOO CUTE NOT TO BUY. Exquisite jus served tableside from a surprising vessel: not a typical pourer, but a small FLOW & SERVE glass teapot. The CESTO bread baskets are also available with matching marble lids for hidden surprises.

OUT OF AFRICA.

The ethnic outfits from NARA BLACK & WHITE make ideal companions on every culinary safari. The striking relief structure contrasts with the silky black glaze.

CULTURAL SPLASH.

When planning exotic presentations, chefs are well-equipped with NARA BLACK. The smooth oval plates in a cast iron look contrast with the relief bowls.

Sense & Sensibility

GENDER GAP. Cool masculinity emanates from the NARA stoneware plate with its shimmering black glaze, combined with shiny stainless steel. Meanwhile, the bestseller NARA ROSÉ gets a feminine makeover with its delicate powdery glaze.

Orient

Oriental cuisine has become appealing to people outside its traditional cultural circles, especially since the success of Levantine cuisine. Alongside flavorful meat and fish dishes, the wide array of oriental vegetarian dishes enriches the plant-based kitchen trend. The absence of alcohol in sauces, desserts, and as accompaniments opens new creative avenues – why not serve Arabic desserts instead of classic Western ones?

SUBTLE STARS. The under-stated design of the oval stoneware bowls BLUE PEARL highlights flatbreads, sesame balls, and pastry bites with pistachios. The reactive glazes vary, making each piece unique.

Sustainability in Focus: This trend combines an appreciation for natural ingredients in the kitchen with a celebration of natural materials like wood, stone, marble, and ceramic in tableware. Wild-harvested ingredients find their way into recipes alongside vegetables, fish, and meat from organic farming or sustainable practices. At the renowned Noma in Copenhagen, roasted beets are served on rustic wooden boards, while Central in Lima showcases Peruvian specialties like ceviche and Andean potatoes on artistically crafted ceramic plates. Vibrant sauces, fresh herbs, and edible flowers add lively accents. Bowls, plates, and platters become canvases for aesthetic arrangements.

FELT

The felt used as a stand for the presented vases is an industrial felt and is not intended to come into contact with food. It is for decoration purposes only. Should it become dirty, it can be wiped with a damp cloth or vacuumed with a hand-held vacuum cleaner. As felt is a natural product, slight colour variations may occur.

GLASS

All glass items are dishwasher safe and – after removing metal holders – microwave safe.

The glass straws can also be cleaned by hand with a cleaning brush, as offered in the Playground range. The glass straws are resistant to temperatures from –50°C to 150°C.

MARBLE

As marble is a natural product, deviations in structure and color are possible.

Items made of marble are not dishwasher safe and may not be used in the microwave or oven.

Please clean these items by using pH-neutral detergents and warm water only.

Be aware that prolonged contact with high-acid food (particularly citric acid or fruit acid) can affect the surface of the marble product.

NATURAL STONE

The natural stone is a complete untreated natural product, which can lead to deviations in color, structure and size.

The natural stones have a porous surface and therefore stains (esp. grease) are difficult to remove. Be aware that prolonged contact with high-acid and greasy food (particularly citric acid or fruit acid) can affect the surface of the stone.

Please clean these stones by using a damp cloth and pH-neutral detergents. To maintain a long-term good look, natural stones may be treated with cooking oil from time to time.

STONEWARE

Within our assortment PLAYGROUND, all articles made of stoneware are dishwasher-safe, heat-resistant, suitable for microwave and freezer.

Due to the surface texture of some stoneware products, metal marking can occur. This metal marking can easily be removed with an appropriate cleanser and does not impact functionality and hygiene in any way.

WOOD

Wood is a natural product, whose shades of color can vary.

All wooden articles of our PLAYGROUND collection are neither dishwasher- nor microwave-safe. Please clean the wooden items with a damp cloth only.

Our wooden articles are properly sealed with a food-safe oil. If necessary, linseed oil can be used for a retreatment.

Products made of bamboo can be cleaned in mild, warm soapy water.
